Bridge Replacement on AL-1 (US-431)
over Abandoned Georgia Southwestern Railroad and Chewalla Creek

The Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) is proposing to replace the bridge on AL-1 (US-431) over the Abandoned Georgia Southwestern Railroad and Chewalla Creek in Barbour County, Alabama. Information about the project is available to the public for review and comment. Your comments may be provided by US mail, email, or online as described below. Comments for the proposed project must be submitted by January 24, 2023.

Project Description

ALDOT is proposing the replacement of two sets of roadway/ pedestrian bridges on SR-1 (US-431) over Chewalla Creek and an abandoned Georgia Southwestern Railroad line. These bridges will be replaced with wider bridges to accommodate high roadway traffic volumes. The new bridges will also be equipped with pedestrian sidewalks in order to continue to accommodate foot traffic along the corridor.
